CLARK KERSEY (far left), Edith Kersey (on pony) and Mabel Kersey (2nd from right) gathered with a group of friends in front of an old frame building in 1903. This building was located south of the SP&S depot, and burned down during World War I.—Photo from Clark Kersey.